 and where came.

There are some things that are not often when FRED HORN performs.
Judge Dixon comes out to-night as an independent candidate for the office of Chief Justice. The papers say his call has seven thousand signatures. That is quite a job, but it will need some more, you know.
The Journal speaks highly of the Judge, and an impartial man, and a good man, and one who know him well enough to be confident of his success, if he runs. Who knows?

THE DEATH PENALTY IN NEW YORK.
In the New York Assembly a select committee of five was appointed, to which were referred the many petitions on the abolition of the death penalty. The committee, directed by Mr. Boyce, to address them, which he did a short time ago. They have unanimously reported a bill, accompanied by an able report, recommending the abolition of the death penalty. As the members of the committee are composed of the ablest members of the House, three of whom are from its Judiciary Committee, the friends of the reform are looking for favorable results.

RACINE COUNTY.—We learn from the Racine Advocate, that efficient Republican clubs have been organized in Burlington and Rochester, in that county. We also learn from the same paper that interesting religious revivals are in progress in the town of Raymond and about fifty persons are reported happily converted.

THE GALE OF LAST SATURDAY IN SAUK COUNTY.—The gale of last week caused the destruction of a Ball Alley in Baraboo. The Republic says that the barn of Mr. Forman, the State mill, and the business of the fire by sparks carried by the chimney of the owner's house near by, and was destroyed, add, together with a valuable horse.

THE LEGISLATURE—ADJOURNMENT.
The Assembly yesterday adjourned a resolution to adjourn sine die, on the 27th inst. We trust the session can be dispatched by that time.

WE LEARN that they are having quite a religious revival at Lyons, Walworth county.
Quite a number have joined the church, and the work is still going on. We trust that my result in much permanent good.
